

CHALLENGE OF LIBRARY MATERIALS FORM

The Dennis P. McHugh Piermont Public Library adheres to the Library Bill of Rights of the American Library Association and to the Freedom to Read statement prepared by the American Library Association and the American Book Publishers Council regarding free and equitable access to materials and information. Materials deemed offensive may be reconsidered. If you object to material in the library's collection, the Library Director will carefully consider your objection. Removal of materials from the library's collection is at the discretion of the Library Director. We appreciate your interest in the library and thank you for taking the time to fill out this form.

In what format is the material to which you object? (book, magazine, newspaper, etc.)?

Please provide the title and author of the material in question.

What is your objection?

What if any action would you like the library to take regarding the material in question?

If you would like us to contact you, please provide the following:

Name:

Address:

Phone number:

E-mail address: