The Book Sale kicks off September 16th. We have a few less books than years past, but all good quality items so it should be a successful fundraiser still.

The staff completed their Sexual Harassment Prevention training. This was the last of the required trainings for staff in 2023, so all are set.

Romeo Electric was able to repair the bathroom lightswitch. We are still waiting for them to come hardwire our Ring doorbell; I am hoping they will follow up soon.

I submitted the close-out items for our DLD grant. We should see a reimbursement check for the portion we are getting back sometime this Fall.

Our CREST grant is moving along as it should; that too should close out this Fall.

The Library and staff are all set up for my leave; the staff are prepared and everything is in order.

Update on DA Meeting will be given verbally, including an update on the ILS vote.
